

Rod Bristol: Introduction

Rod Bristol is the Senior Vice President of Profit Mastery in Seattle, Washington, and is part of the team that promotes the expansion of the Profit Mastery program nationally and internationally.

Rod began his career as an investment banker in Seattle, doing mergers and acquisitions in the $2 million to $20 million dollar middle-market. In 1984, Rod purchased Sudden Printing, and grew it to be the largest quick printing company in the state of Washington, with 19 locations, 60 employees, and $5 million in annual sales and had the good fortune to sell the business in February of 2007.

Highlights of his career included being elected to the White House Conference on Small Business, and served as Governor Appointee and Chairman of the Washington State Economic Development Finance Authority and Small Business Improvement Council.

During his 23 year career as a business owner Rod was elected President of the National Association of Quick Printers and this 4,000 member trade association honored him by inducting him as a Honorary Lifetime Member in September of 2007.

Rod is a Certified Franchise Executive, has a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Washington, as well as studies towards a Masters in Christian Ministry.

Rod resides in Seattle, Washington with his wife of over 40 years, and has three grown children, and is enjoying being a new first-time Grandpa. Please join me in giving a warm welcome to Rod Bristol.
